

JOB POSTING

POSITION : Aircraft Structures Technician
DEPARTMENT : Structures
REPORTS TO : Structures Supervisor

AAR is a leading provider of aviation services to the worldwide commercial aerospace and government/defense industries. AAR combines a close-to-the-customer business model with a broad menu of capabilities to help customers operate more efficiently, lower costs and maintain high levels of quality, safety and service. We are a financially stable, dedicated partner with an enduring commitment to innovation, execution, continuous improvement and customer value. At AAR we are committed to doing it right, and we have built our core values based on that premise.

Under the umbrella of AAR in Canada, AAR operates from two different locations in Windsor, Ontario and Trois Rivieres, Quebec. The Windsor facility is a 143,000 square-foot hangar conveniently located at the Windsor Airport. 'Transport Canada' approved, AAR Windsor carries out aircraft services and repairs on multiple aircraft types. Currently, the facility employs approx. 160 highly skilled full time employees across trades ranging from Avionics, Mechanics, Structures, Interiors plus functional support staff.

Role and Mandate

The Aircraft Structures Technician performs a full range of aircraft sheet metal duties including disassemble, modify, repair, and reassemble complex aircraft metal items and systems.

Main Responsibilities

- 5 years' experience in Aircraft Structural Repair, Modification and Fabrication;
- Aircraft Structural Repair, Modification and Fabrication;
- Clear Understanding of manufacturer's and regulatory documentation, including Service Bulletins, Engineering Drawings, etc...
- Extensive knowledge and skilled use of the tools of the trade and the processes to perform duties as assigned
- Actively participate in AAR Windsor's Safety Management System (SMS) including reporting safety hazards and incidents encountered in daily operations; understands and promotes the company safety policy.

Skills, Qualifications and Competencies

- Repair, fabrication or modification of airframe structures as assigned in accordance with approved technical instructions;
- Work courteously and cooperatively with other trade personal, Management and Customer Representatives while performing to the project directives;
- Maintain a clean and safe work environment at all times;
- Must have own set of tools and tool box (specialty and calibrated tools provided);
- Positive attitude & strong work ethic;
- Sense of observation, good vision and analytical mind;

- Ability to work effectively independently & as part of a team;
- Assist in tutoring apprentice technicians;
- Meet the quality, cost and time commitments;
- Read drawings and be rigorous in the use and application of technical documentation;
- Clear understanding of Canadian Aviation Regulations (CARs).

As an AAR Team Member, your Total Rewards include:

- Comprehensive benefits package
- RRSP Contribution
- Annual Uniform allowance
- Annual Safety Boot allowance
- Paid time off benefits including 11 company paid holidays
- Relocation assistance may be provided, if required
- Company discounts including discount with GoodLife gym
- Training and development opportunities and education assistance program

Qualified applicants may email their resume to windsorrecruiting@aarcorp.com. Please quote file #AAR-008. Please submit your resume in MS Word or PDF format.

Although all applications are appreciated, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

To support AAR's commitment to building a diverse and inclusive workforce, AAR encourages applications from people of all races, ethnic origins, religions, abilities, sexual orientations, gender identities or expressions.

AAR is committed to the health and safety of our people, our customers, and the communities where we live and work.